

Foreword

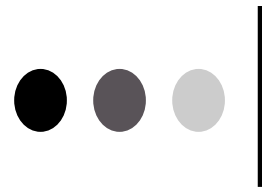

My motivation for assembling this cookbook was primarily my two daughters. Although I cooked when they were young girls, I did not cook at home much when they were in their teenage years and beyond. Thus, they did not learn to cook from me. I can't say that they ever seemed interested, but I definitely did not give them much opportunity. Schedules were busy, and it seemed to be much easier to eat as we could fit it into our schedules and help the restaurant economy.

When I did cook, I cooked "big," and everyone enjoyed what I cooked. My husband often teased me about my "great collection of recipes"—"collection" being the key word. My collection, however, was scattered everywhere: on scraps of paper, napkins, recipe cards, cookbooks, and magazines with "dog-eared" pages. I usually had to go into major search mode to locate the recipe when I did cook.

So, I decided to assemble everything together in one place—a place that was organized, alphabetized, and easy to find. I have included recipes from more than 35 years of collecting. There are recipes from my grandmother, my mother, my mother-in-law, my sisters-in-law, my daughters, my aunts, my nieces, and my friends. Then there are some recipes that I have meant to try for a long time, but I never followed through with it.

*I would like to thank my daughter, Jenn, who has done the artistic part of the cookbook. I would also like to thank all who have shared recipes with me over the years and those who have submitted recipes specifically for this cookbook. I hope you enjoy my collection of family favorites and that you actually take the time to make something from it. At least I will now know exactly where to find my recipes when I do become inspired to cook.
Bon appétit!*

Kathy Spencer

1 cup cheddar cheese, shredded
½ cup mozzarella cheese, shredded
¼ cup Parmesan cheese
4-5 green onions, finely chopped
Mayonnaise
Party rye bread

Mix all ingredients together, using enough mayonnaise to make cheese spreadable. Line cookie sheet with slices of party rye bread. Heap cheese mixture onto bread slices. Put under broiler or bake at 350° until cheese is bubbly—bread should be crisp. Enjoy while hot!

Note: I usually bake until toast is crisp and then broil to melt cheese, if needed.*

Costco cans chunk chicken, drained)

shredded cheese

Heat chicken and hot sauce in skillet over medium heat. Do not use non-stick skillet.
Shred chicken with fork.

Stir in cream cheese and melt. Stir in Ranch dressing and cheese. Pour into ungreased glass lasagna dish. Bake at 350° until hot and bubbly and golden brown. May also use a slow cooker.

Peel Idaho potatoes and slice in half lengthwise
Place potatoes on bottom of slow cooker Place a bag of mini carrots or peeled, chunks of carrots on top of
and around the potatoes (I like the real carrots better)
Place the English cut roast on top Season to taste (I use black pepper, crushed red pepper, minced garlic or garlic powder, onion powder)
I also sometimes rub Gravy Master on the roast to make the broth richer.
Slice onions and place on top of roast (or quarter onions and place around roast) Pour 1 can College Inn Beef Broth around roast (to get especially on the veggies) (or use 1 cup boiling water & 1 bouillon cube)
Cook on low for about 8 hours or on high for about 4 hours*

Meat will be fork tender.

*You can make gravy from the broth by using a baster to remove the broth and then placing it in a saucepan. Make a paste of about 2 heaping Tbsp. of flour and add cold water (about $\frac{1}{4}$ cup). Whisk together with a wire whisk. Bring broth to a boil and then slowly add the flour mixture until you get a good consistency. You can add a few drops of Gravy Master to flavor

5 lbs. Idaho potatoes, peeled & sliced

Butter

Carnation® evaporated milk

All-purpose flour

Grease dish. Place one layer of potatoes in dish. Sprinkle with salt & pepper, flour, and pats of butter. Continue to layer until all potatoes are gone. Pour canned milk over potatoes, completely covering. If you need more milk, you may use regular milk. Cover and place in 425° oven. Bake for 1 to 1 1/2 hours, or until potatoes are tender. Sprinkle with cheese for the last few minutes of cooking. (You will have to learn the consistency of the flour, etc. Practice makes perfect!)

Sweet Potato Casserole

Kathy Spencer

Mix together:

4 eggs, beaten with fork	1 cup flaked coconut
2 sticks butter, melted	2 tsp. baking powder
2 cups white sugar	1 tsp. Vanilla
1 cup Carnation® evaporated milk

Add 2 cups mashed sweet potatoes (I use 1 pkg. frozen yam patties. They are usually in the frozen section & sometimes with the meats. Canned yams do not taste the same.) Pour into large, deep dish casserole, greased with butter.

Topping:

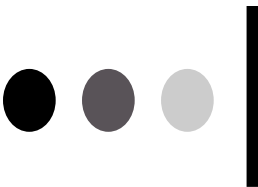

Mix together:

1 cup brown sugar	½ tsp. salt
½ cup flour	½ tsp. baking powder
1 cup pecans

Put topping on right before you bake.

Dot with ½ stick butter sliced into pats. (Sometimes I double the topping recipe.) Bake uncovered at 350° for approximately 1 hour. Top will be firm and crunchy looking. Insert knife to check—should not be very “gooey.” (This can be made the night before. Make the topping and place it in a Ziploc® baggie. Do not put topping on until just before you bake. Let casserole get to room temperature before baking or allow longer to bake.) Fantastic!

*Fried Chicken West Virginia Style
Sue Zills*

Lay chicken pieces out on wax paper for 1 hour before cooking. (Your choice of chicken pieces—chicken tenderloins work well also.)

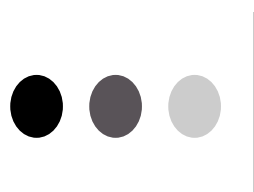

30 minutes before frying, season chicken with salt, pepper, garlic salt, paprika, and roll in flour.

Let chicken stand for 30 minutes. Moisture from chicken will seep back through flour.

Just before placing chicken into frying pan with olive oil heated to 425°, roll chicken again in flour. The moisture will pick up more breading, and it will be crispier.

Place chicken in hot oil, turning often, for 30 to 40 minutes, (depending on the size of chicken pieces).

Turn heat down after initial browning of chicken; and before removing chicken from pan, turn heat back up to 425° to make chicken crispy.
